Property Description

260,000 m² in full nature with transformation potential

Located in the prestigious Monte Mayor valley, this exceptional rustic estate of 260,000 square meters represents a unique opportunity for those seeking to invest in soil with projection within one of the most exclusive and natural areas of Benahavis.

It is a land currently classified as rustic, located in an enclave where the luxury architecture does not compete with the environment, but is integrated into it. The area has been the scene of sustainable residential developments that follow a clear philosophy: to create homes that respect the topography, views and native vegetation.
